

DONALD LECTURE SERIES

NIGHT OUT WITH ODYSSEY MONITOR SARA MATRANGA

Amal Elsana Alhjooj-- Activist

Amal Elsana Alhjooj is a Bedouin/Palestinian
Israeli who is a strong advocate for women's rights, Bedouin rights, and peace.

Ms Alhjooj is the founding director of AJEEC – Arab Jewish Center for Equality, Empowerment and Cooperation. She is also the co-director of NISPED – Negev Institute for Strategies of Peace and Development.

In 2010, the Israeli business publication, The Marker, listed Alhjooj as one of the 101 most influential people in Israel. She is also a Nobel Peace Prize nominee

English Participation Activity

Bishop's University
Centennial Theatre
Tuesday, March 20th, 2018
19:00

Mio Sara Matranga to RVSP for event

If travelling by bus, we will meet at the Station du Cegep, Quai D at 18:20 ***

More information about this event can be found at <http://www.ubishops.ca/donald-lecture-series/>